Dear TGF Member,

I am still trying to catch up. It seems hopeless, but I hope you do not give up on me. Please let me know if I have failed to publish a query or other material for you. My filing system and check system is not the greatest. So I would welcome a reminder. Since I am in my third and soon to be fourth volume, I can't remember what I have printed. For that reason I do spent some considerable time checking on myself.

I do have lots of material, but more is always welcome. So please write. I want to thank all of you who have told your family and friends about TGF. It has resulted in several new subscribers. The next best source of advertize-ment has been the Genealogical Helper.

Please continue to send information.

Sincerely, Cecil Daniels, Editor

Dear Mr. Daniels:

Thank you for sending all of the back issues I had ordered in such a prompt fashion! Being a full-time homemaker with two boys, ages 7 and 4, and also home schooling, I sometimes find it difficult to do everything I would like to do in the amount of time I would like to do them! However, at last, I am sending you the Gooch lineage of our family branch, beginning with the family group sheet on my husband, me, and our sons, and going back in a direct line to Thomas Grubbs Gooch and Julia Ann Washburn Gooch. I noticed that you had quite a bit of information on T.G. and Julia Gooch in the Vol. 2 No. 4 issue.

In the way of verification of information, I have birth and death certificates for each family member, beginning with our immediate family, and going back to Robert Everett Gooch, the husband of Frances Payne Pusey Gooch. I have a death certificate on Robert Everett Gooch, but none for Frances. According to a cousin of Frances, Frances died in Ohio in 1941 and her body was sent to Louisville, KY, for burial. It now rests in Cave Hill Cemetery in Louisville. Because she died during wartime, it took several months to obtain room on a train in order for her body to be shipped. So far, I have not been able to establish an exact place or date of death, although I know the body was buried on 5 December 1941. The cousin believed she had passed away in October, 1941.

I also have photos of all family members going back to, and including, Thomas Claiborne Gooch, Sr., and M. Flora Harris Gooch. I will send copies to you as soon as I am able to round them up and get copies made to send!

Because our immediate family is so small, it is a real pleasure to learn about all the other Gooches! Also, because of this, I would REALLY love to find the people I have mentioned in the inquiry I have also enclosed. Thank you so much for all your hard work!

Sincerely,

Cynthia Gooch

LETTER FROM ARCHIE HOLMES

Jan. 15, 1994

Dear Cecil,

You're doing a great job with the GFL. It's a big help for us and is appreciated. Vol. 3, No. 1 was especially interesting. I've been waiting for a chance to answer query # V3.02.

This DAR linkage of Thomas GOOCH and Sarah WOOD has been the source of enough confusion. I've never encountered any verification of it. Perhaps there was a a Thomas GOOCH who married a Sarah WOOD, but someone should provide some kind of evidence. In my opinion the whole thing is the result of someone's imagination or an uneducated guess.

My explanation for the Sarah (Wood) GOOCH connection is that she married Rowland GOOCH, Jr. son of Rowland and Unity. Sarah WOOD inherited property from her father David WOOD of Albemarle CO. But she died shortly before David WOOD died in 1813. There was a division of her property in Albemarle to her heirs, without a mention of who her husband was. Her heirs can be found in Albemarle Will Bk. 5, 259; Bk 6, 2-5. The same information is recorded in Lincoln CO. Ky. July 4, 1815, pgs 25-26; Jan. 20, 1818, pgs. 38-39.

To prove that Sarah (Wood) GOOCH was the wife of Rowland GOOCH, Jr. one must compare her heirs as recorded with his heirs as recorded, in Lincoln Co. Deed of Gift, pg. 247, on May 8, 1812.

Enclosed family group sheet compiled from above named sources.
Archie Holmes.

PS: I'm sure the article on the Gooch Family pg. 16, Vol. 3, No. 1 will elicit lot of interest. By now you've discovered that your note on page 21 should read 1690's instead of 1790's. AH

PPS: In the Family Group Record - 107 which I submitted on John L. GOOCH - 515, I noticed that Unity West appears as his mother. If I submitted her name it was entirely unintentional. Please have it deleted. AH

The following FGR should be referred to as GSTORE 120. Information for that family submitted by Maxine Dark and Archie Holmes.

Dear Mr. Daniels,

I want to thank you for the back issues of TGF and I am sending a copy of the subscription form to a cousin in Missouri. James Gooch in Kentucky was the person who told me about your publication.

In the Jul-Sep 1992 issue you mentioned that you had visited the Williamsburg-Jamestown area in Virginia. Did you get to see the Maj. William Gooch gravesite in Yorktown? My parents and I have been there twice and I thought you might be interested in the information I have gathered through research and personal visits.

The second oldest tombstone in Virginia is that of Maj. William Gooch at "Temple Farm" at Yorktown, Va.

Archaeological excavations have uncovered the remains of four buildings along the banks of Wormley's Creek. They are believed to be part of the English settlement of old "Yorke". The buildings were occupied from the 1630's until the 1670's.

Within a segment of what is thought to be the foundation wall of the first Yorke Parish church is a tombstone bearing the following:

[Coat of Arms]

Major William Gooch of T(his)

[Parish]

Dyed Oct. 29 1655

Within this tomb there doth entered

Itself though young in years just +[twenty]

Yet graced with virtues morall and [divine]

The church from him did good partici[pate]

When my family visited the Yorktown area in 1972, it took us three days of researching before we could locate the burial site. At that time, there was a wooden roof over it and metal pipes arched over it for protection from vandalism. In 1985, the wooden roof and pipes had been replaced with thick, clear glass, placed at an angle to shed the weather. At that time several cracks had appeared which weren't there in 1972.

The part of "Temple Farm" on which "Old York" is located can be found on the Coast Guard Reserve Training Center outside the present day Yorktown. If anyone wants to visit the gravesite, permission must be obtained at the security office inside the base entrance gate.

All of the information from above was copied off of signs at the cemetery site.

I'm looking forward to future issues of your publication. The ones I've received so far have been very informative and I hope to see some articles on the family in Kentucky and North Carolina as well as Sullivan County, Missouri.

Sincerely,
Sharon A Gooch

P.S. If you feel the information on the Maj. William Gooch gravesite is worthy of publication, feel free to use it.

Remains of Thomas C. and M. Flora Harris Gooch are located in Cave Hill Cemetery
 Louisville, KY, Lot 590, Section P., along with others of the Gooch family.

Information on the first two sons of Thomas Claiborne Gooch, Sr. and M. Flora Harris Gooch was all taken from research notes of Neville K. Gooch, Jr., of Louisville, KY, received by me on 25 July 1994. According to his notes, T.C. and Flora Gooch did have three sons: Hiram Harris Gooch, born 1860 in Louisville, who never married and died 10 March 1918 in New York City, NY; Thomas Claiborne Gooch, Jr., born 1862 in Louisville, KY, married about 1884 in Louisville, KY, to Luann "Lula" Settle, died 1904 in Louisville, KY; and Robert Everett Lee Gooch (this is the only reference to an additional middle name "Lee" I have come across - C.B. Gooch), born 3 June 1864 in Louisville, KY, married Frances Pusey in 1889 in Louisville, KY, and died 6 February 1914 in Forest Hill (sic)."

Included in the papers sent to me by Mr. James P. Gooch, was included a photocopy of an obituary (newspaper name and date not noted) for "Death of Mrs. T. C. Gooch" as follows: "After an illness of three weeks, Mrs. T.C. Gooch died at her home in Louisville on the 13 inst., from the effects of a paralytic stroke. The funeral took place on the following day at the family residence.

"Mrs. Gooch, as well as her husband, Mr. T.C. Gooch, was a native of Logan County, having been a daughter of Mr. Y.F.E. Harris, deceased, who lived six miles from Russellville on the Morgantown road.

"The bereaved family have many friends and relatives in Logan County, and the community at large extends sympathy." and relatives in Logan County, and the

There was also a small biographical sketch accompanying the family tree information as follows: "Thomas Claiborne Gooch, the oldest son of Thomas and Julia Ann Washburn Gooch, was born 20 March 1830. He grew up on his father's plantation in South Logan County where he developed a love for the out-of-doors. To satisfy a longing for the open spaces after he had been cooped up in his business house in Louisville for a number of years, he evolved a plan to satisfy that desire and at the same time put it to business usage. When summer came each year and business grew lax in the city, he would secure a good rubber-tired buggy, two good horses and an experienced negro driver. Thus equipped, he would make trips through Kentucky, Tennessee, Arkansas and into Texas, and return. He would stop at all the sizeable towns after stopping for a visit with his father, brother, and sister in southern Kentucky. Going to Texas, he would visit all old customers and solicit new ones, making new ones at almost every stop.

"He learned the needs and the tastes of the firm's customers, and he usually returned to Louisville with his book filled with thousands of dollars worth of orders. Reaching Logan County in Kentucky, he usually found his wife and children at his father's home where he had a nice visit with all members of her family and his family before returning to Louisville.

"Thomas Gooch had had a fine vacation, a good business trip, a visit with family and friends and a desire for seeing the open country satisfied."

Robert E. and Frances P. Gooch are buried in Cave Hill Cemetery, Louisville, KY,
 Lot No. 590, Section P, along with several other members of the Gooch family.

In a memorial booklet about Robert E. Gooch published by the Fire Underwriters' Association of the Northwest, per a meeting held in Chicago, IL, on October 7 and 8, 1914, it states:

"ROBERT EVERETT GOOCH; Born at Adairville, Ky., June 3, 1864; Died at Forest Hills Gardens, L.I., February 6, 1914" "In the early prime of his manhood this beautiful character passed from our view after an illness of but a few months, and even before many of his friends were aware of it.

"He could claim pride of ancestry, descended from the Virginia branch which dates back to Sir William Gooch, who was appointed Lieutenant Governor of Virginia in 1727. On the maternal side he was related to Joel Chandler Harris of "Uncle Remus" fame.

"At twenty-two he came to Chicago in 1886 and entered the office of the Phoenix Assurance Company of London, filling every position, from minor clerk to cashier, and in 1892 was made special agent of that company for Ohio, Kentucky and Tennessee.

"In 1896 he resigned to accept the Ohio State Agency of the Liverpool & London & Globe Insurance Company, where, for seven years he gave complete satisfaction as an energetic, capable and efficient field man, resigning in 1903, when he became Secretary of the Western Reserve Insurance Company of Cleveland, which company he helped to found.

"He then moved to New York City and was with the John A. Kelly General Agency for a year and a half, going with the London Assurance as State Agent for New York in May, 1913; but and incurable illness that winter suddenly terminated, at the age of fifty, what bade fair to have been a notable success, for he excelled as a Special Agent and Adjuster, having a winning personality, and was prompt and active in performing the many varied duties devolving on the man in the field, who has to simulate the Agency Corps and at the same time exercise the highest care and judgment as to Agents and Hazards.

"Mr. Gooch was happily married in 1889 to Miss Frances Pusey, daughter of Dr. H.K. Pusey (an eminent alienist of Louisville), and a lady gifted with high literary and social talents. She, with their two children - Everett Pusey Gooch, a Cornell graduate this year in electrical engineering, and the daughter, Thelma, an art student in New York City - made an irresistible family circle that lured him from the hard grind of the road, and made their home life in Cleveland and in New York City was made ideal by the congeniality of their tastes and ambitions.

"This Association would honor his memory by a memorial page in its Proceedings and tenders its deep sympathy to the stricken but courageous hearts at home."

In an article about Robert E. Gooch being selected as the "New President of the Colonial Club" of Cleveland, Ohio, it states, in addition to the biographical information given above, the following: "While Mr. Gooch is too thoroughly an American to regard his ancestry as other than a decorative feature of social life, he is also too thoroughbred a Kentuckian to believe other than that 'blood will tell,' for good or ill. Certainly his own personality is an argument in favor of heredity. An anecdote handed down in S.A.R. biography concerning his many-times removed Colonial uncle, the lieutenant governor, is as illustrative of the character of R.E. Gooch of today as of Sir William Gooch two hundred years ago. Sir William being in conversation with a gentleman in a street of the city of Williamsburgh, returned the salute of a negro. 'Sir,' said the gentleman, 'does your honor descent so far as to salute a slave?' 'Why, yes,' replied the governor, 'I cannot suffer a man of his condition to exceed me in good manners.'

The same article goes on: "His philosophy of life is not, 'Qui bono,' but 'We'll be a long time dead,' so he smiles except where it is absolutely necessary to frown. Geniality, adaptability and tact being qualities as requisite as executive ability in the president of a social club, the choice of Mr. Gooch augurs well for a successful year in one of the oldest of Cleveland's clubs.

"In 1889 he was married to Frances Pusey, daughter of Dr. H.K. Pusey, an eminent alienist of Louisville, Ky., Mrs. Gooch, known in her literary work as Frances Pusey Gooch, vies with her husband in ancient and honorable lineage, her ancestors having come over with William Penn, and dating back in an unbroken succession to William Pusey, knighted in 1016 by King Canute. The "horn" presented on this occasion and mentioned by Sir Walter Scott in Kenilworth, still hangs on the wall of the Pusey mansion, near Oxford. [This horn has since been moved to the Victoria & Albert Museum, London, England, and is in their English silver exhibit. - Cynthia Brehmer Gooch, per information obtained by Miss Marguerite Lewis, of Louisville, KY. 10/93]

Both Robert E. Gooch and Frances Payne Pusey Gooch are buried at Cave Hill Cemetery, Louisville, KY, Lot 590, Section P, with others of the Gooch family.

THE RESURRECTION of M T . A I R Y C H U R C H

Renovation of the aged log church proved to be a challenge to its tiny congregation.

Well over 130 years in age, the stark little church has stood in good times and bad. Today, it is the oldest log church still in use in north Georgia, and was recently renovated by its 10 surviving members.
